LIFE'S END COMES TO BEN H. BATES.

One of County's Best Citizens and Successful Business Man—
Lived Life of Zealous Christian.

Tarfork, Ky., Dec. 12.—(Special)—Ben H. Bates, one of the best known and most successful business men of the county, died last Wednesday at his home at McQuady. He had been ill for some time, but was in failing health for sometime, but was in critical condition just a few days before death. He was at Cloverport only a week ago, writing and telling his relatives there of improvement in his health. His last illness came upon him very unexpectedly and all that skill and attention could do was unavoidable.

Benjamin Hincher Bates was born near Cloverport on the Hardinsburg turnpike, on December 15, 1832, and lived in Breckenridge county all his life. He was the third and youngest son of John D. and Eliza Bates. About 1856, he was married to Miss Susan Tael, who died a few years ago. He is survived by his son, J. B. Bates, two brothers, William, of Fordville, and Samuel, of this county, and two half brothers, T. H. and J. T. Bates.

At the time of his death, Mr. Bates was engaged with his son in the mercantile and milling business at McQuady. In earlier years he engaged extensively in farming and the tobacco business. He was very successful as a business man, accumulating quite a large estate.

Mr. Bates lived a Christian life worthy of emulation. He joined the Baptist church early in life, but later united with the Christian church, and was a zealous member and leader in Tarfork Christian church.

The funeral was held Thursday, the interment being at the Tarfork cemetery.

Dr. Hardaway, Glendale, Dec. 18.
Dr. A. M. Hardaway will be at Glendale week beginning December 18, prepared to do all modern dentistry.

Court Circuit Can Be Held Here.

Frankfort, Ky., Dec. 7.—The court of appeals today sustained the act of the last Legislature providing for the holding of Circuit Court in two towns in the same county, where the town not the county seat is the larger. The case came up on appeal from Fulton county. Hickman is the county seat of Fulton, but is a smaller town than Fulton and is seventeen miles distant from it. Johnson, a citizen of Hickman, brought suit to test the validity of the act of the Legislature. The court here affirms the lower court and holds the act constitutional.

The above ruling of the court of appeals has caused considerable comment here and a number of citizens have been heard to remark that they intend to have the circuit court sit at any time in the future they may have cases in that court.

Young People's Societies

Elect Officers For 1906.

At their monthly business meetings last week, the Baptist Young People's Union and the Epworth League elected officers for the ensuing year. The new officers or the B. Y. P. U. were installed when elected. The officers elect of the League will be installed at the Methodist church on Sunday evening.

The new B. Y. P. U. officers are as follows: R. L. Oelze, president; Edmund Wroe, vice-president; Miss Annie Jarboe, secretary; Miss Ray Hayser, assistant secretary; W. B. Oelze, treasurer; Miss Rue, Wm.

The Epworth League elected officers as follows: H. A. Beheler, president; Prof. J. P. King, H. H. Rafferty, Miss Marian Bowmer and Miss Louisa Babage, vice presidents at head of devotional, charity, social and missionary departments, respectively. Miss Margaret Moorman, secretary; Mrs. Louise Murray, treasurer; Miss Margaret Burns, organist; Miss Ethel Ears, Miss Minnie White, pianist.

Both organizations have approximately seventy-five members and are a flourishing condition.

Sunday School Convention.

The features of a district Sunday school convention at the Methodist church last Wednesday evening were the election of officers and an address on Sunday school by Rev. T. C. Geisner, State field worker of the State Sunday school association.

Rev. Geisner illustrated his address with stereoscopic views of scenes in the life of Christ.

The following officers were elected: R. L. Oelze, president; Miss V. G. Babbage and Mrs. C. E. Lightfoot, superintendents of the home, primary and honest—none visitation departments, respectively.

One of Worst Losses on Ohio Occurs Below City.

One of the worst losses on the Ohio river occurred at the bend above Cincinnati Saturday evening about 10 o'clock when the Raymond Brown and the Harry Brown and their town were caught in a gale and oval barges worth more than $100,000 went down.

The barge lost five barges of coal and the Brown twenty-seven barges. No lives were lost.

Both boats were caught in a hard wind, which sprung up suddenly, and attempted to land. The Horner succeeded with a small loss, but the Brown lost control of her steer, every barge breaking loose, and sinking on filling with water from the waves.

The fleets were owned by the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal and Coke company.

Flood of Santa Claus Letters.

The News office is literally flooded with letters from the little folks to Santa Claus, dozens of letters being received which cannot possibly be published this week but will be published next week.

SANTA CLAUS GETS LOTS OF LETTERS THIS WEEK.

Our Little Folks Pour Out the Desires of Their Hearts to Saint Nicholas...They Say They Wont Peep and Will Be Good.

What is it?

Georgetown, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. My Dear Santa Claus—On all the things in the world there is only one thing that I want with all my heart and it is such a little one in size, however that I guess you will be surprised to hear it. I do not care for much this Christmas.

You might wonder why I have not gotten this before now, because I always get everything I want. Some times I only get one thing left for me to want. Father and mother have just gotten me a new piano and my big brother gave me a beautiful parlor lamp. It's rather big, and it gives lots of light. I love to see it burning, but we never light it except when father comes home. I have piano and sometimes when my dad comes home. My birthday a sister was given me. I might want an automobile if Uncle Chester did not have one. Just as at my last visit, Uncle says I may take any one riding, but I never say any of the girls. I should wear a diamond ring, but I have one and the folks say that when I am to be graduated next June they are going to give me another one, and I think that will be enough jewels for a girl like me. So, you see there is just one thing I want.

Santa Claus, you must be tired of me trying to explain why I desire so little this Christmas. However, I thought best to tell you the reason I want this tiny toy. I was hardly tell you what it is I want. For I have not told or hinted to a single soul, nor even to mother or Lillian. If I mentioned it to them, they would either think me too young to wish for such a plaything or too old to express my wish for it. Lillian has what I want, only I would like for mine to be a little different from hers.

Oh, Santa Claus, I wish I could tell you, but I don't want. Maybe, I will always bring me a ball with black hair because my hair was black. I suppose. My eyes are alight. Black, I am not as pretty as my best friend, Lillian, but, though goodness. I want to write as good as some girls. My disposition gets better as I grow older and by the time I am four years old, I want a watch full of diamonds and candy. I want both socks level full and don't forget little Dennis Owen he is a good little boy too, we live at Cilton Mills, Ky. Dewey Wright.

Guston, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus—I thought that I would right down and tell you what I want. I want you to bring me. Bring me a doll and a doll dress and two oranges bananas raisins nuts candy and Roman candies and fire crackers and a little toy train a little wagon and to little dolls and you can warm your feet by on fire and I wont peep at you I am a going to be good from your little friend.

My brother wants an air rifle and a pair of skates. I want lots of candy and nuts. I am watching for you all the time. Your little friend. Tilda Babcock.

Ivington, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus—I read your nice letter I want you to bring me a nice doll, a doll cart, and a doll dress and two oranges and lots of candy and nuts etc.

My brother wants an air rifle and a pair of skates. I want lots of candy and nuts and I am watching for you all the time. Your little friend. Tilda Babcock.

Conley Arnold Irvington, Ky.

Ivington Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus is coming. I am glad that you will come on my visit. Then I will tell you what I want. I would like to have a Doll and buggy and a table and some dishes and some good Books to read can not go to School but enjoy having them to look at Now Santa as I want friends and mums and candy papa is at Coverport now but he may not see me as I thought I had better write and tell you what I wanted I mean yours, Bessee Arnold, Irvington, Ky.

Dear Santa Claus I am a little Boy six years old. I want a watch full of stars and candy and want both socks level full and don't forget little Dennis Owen he is a good little boy too, we live at Cilton Mills, Ky. Dewey Wright.

Guston, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus—I thought that I would right down and tell you what I want. I want you to bring me. Bring me a little doll and candy peanuts bananas and apples I will close I live where I did last year from Mabel Whealey to Santa Clause.

Dear Santa Claus I am a little girl seven years old and I will tell you what I want for Christmas I want a big doll with brown eyes and hair and a doll buggy. I want a little stove and a table and a little safe to put my dishes in, then please I want a pair of gloves and some ribbons and some oranges bananas and nuts and lots of candy and a ring from your little girl Marcella. Frank 730 Crit St. Owensboro, Ky.

Harned, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus—I will write you a letter to tell you what I want you to bring me Xmas. I want a train like the picture I send. In this letter I want a cracker and a toy train and a pair of skates and a sword and a baysicle and a pair of earmuffs and a book case and a watch and a toy and a book bag and a set of dominoes and a horn and a pencil box with pencils and rule in it and a harp and a knife and I want a little red sleigh well dear Old Santa I can not think of any more at present and I will close. Robert Butler.

Lodging, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Santa Claus I will write a few lines to you and tell you what I want you to bring me. I'm a little boy 8 years old and go to School every day and also love my Uncle he is a good boy and his wife says he will sell Santa to read my doll a chamber, but fear he will go to bed early and stay up late.

Harold, Ky., Dec. 6, 1905. Dear Mr. Butler, I am a boy but my letter went for two weeks but Ma and Pa couldn't tell me where to send it so Ma read me the paper in your paper and I got the letter I have wrote laying on the dresser and send it to you hope Old Santa will read it. Don't forget me hope I'm the first little girl that has wrote you. Your little girl Bessee Board Weatherford, Daughter of Kate P. B. Weatherford.

"Squirrel whiskey" is the name of a new whiskey they use in elections up in New York. They put it out on the night before election and it has the effect of making all voters who use it climb trees on election day and loose their votes. It is suggested that some of this brand of whisky was used by the Democrats on Republican floaters in the recent election in this county.

We are glad to learn that Oscar L. Black, of Addison, has secured a position with the Belknap Hardware & Manufacturing Co., of Louisville. This firm could not have secured the services of a better young man. He is sober, reliable and brimful of energy. We have watched the conduct of this young man for years, we have watched his energy and we have said to ourselves, "There is a young man who will make his mark in the business world." And now that he has got with so good a firm as the Belknap company he will have a chance to show what is in him. We believe he will do it. We congratulate both the firm and the young man and hope their business relations will be pleasant and profitable.

HARPER'S WEEKLY, in commenting on the life insurance situation says: "We are amazed to learn upon good authority that there have developed two phases of the insurance situation which seriously reflect upon the hard sense of a good many presumably intelligent Americans. (1) Hundreds, even thousands, are permitting their policies to lapse. This is so stupid as to be, from the standpoint of pure self-interest, almost criminal. There is no question and has been and can be no question of the solvency of the companies. Enough has developed to prove beyond the shadow of doubt that the total of moneys wasted and not earned that might have been earned is a bagatelle in proportion to the enormous assets. Every dollar of insurance outstanding is good as gold whether a new policy ever be written or not. It is the uttermost folly, therefore, for any one to sacrifice the slightest portion of what he has paid in. To continue the payment of premiums and demand reparation and reform is the only sane policy. (2) Thousands of policy-holders are sending their proxies to Thomas W. Lawson. They would better send them to the devil himself. If the wit of man were exercised to find a way to wreck, if possible, a solvent concern, none more effective than this could be devised. No right-thinking person can condone proven offences, but such a jump as this would be from the frying-pan, not into the fire, but into the bottomless pit. That same being to any number likely to prove adequate to his purpose should intrust their property and the future sustenance of their beneficiaries to a professionally unscrupulous speculator seems incredible. And yet the danger is said to be real and imminent. We hope and believe it is magnified by unwarranted boastfulness on the one hand and by distorted imagination on the other. But the interests involved are so vast and so widespread that no patriotic citizen should spare any possible effort to save credulous thousands from the inevitable consequences of their own rash action. If it be possibly true that insurance officials have become so discredited as to be impotent in withstanding the force of a wave of insanity, it is high time for the formation of a National Vigilance Committee in the interest of the whole people."

RATE AGITATION PERILOUS.

"There is a grave danger that if action is not taken by Congress to settle this transportation question it may become a political issue. This subject is one of the greatest business problems that our country has ever been called upon to determine, and it should not be permitted to become a political issue, to be determined by partisan interest instead of intelligent reason."

These words of warning were spoken by Mr. Nelson W. McLeod, president of the Federal Rate Regulation, in the course of an address on governmental rate making delivered at a meeting of the Yellow Pins, a prominent lumbermen's club of St. Louis, Mo., Monday evening, Nov. 20. Mr. McLeod showed that the rebate and preference evils, being related to the administration of the rate rather than the fixing of it, have no connection whatever with the source from which the rate emanates. He contended that however sincere the advocates of government rate making might be in their intent that the power to be delegated is not to be used to name the rates in general, but that it is to be confined to incidental cases based on formal complaint; the actual practice would necessarily be exactly contrary to that assertion of intent, and that the confounding claims of contending interests could only be satisfied through a political commission, by the establishment of a distance tariff. In concluding, Mr. McLeod said:

"If those who advocate placing in the hands of a political body the power to name rates are successful in their efforts and are in error as to the result in practice, commercial disaster may result, and while it may cause some men of wealth to become poor, capital as a class, will only be affected in degree, in the amount of their capital but will not be compelled to make personal sacrifice. Commercial disaster, however, to labor and the man of limited means is a calamity touching the home life in sacrifice and possible want. On the other hand if those of us who oppose placing the power to name rates in the hands of a political body, are successful in our opposition but are mistaken as to what would occur in the event of a rate increase, it would not result as the conservative policy would safeguard a continued prosperous condition. It is true a complainant might have to go before a court to obtain adequate remedy, but to cure this slight delay does not, in my opinion, justify placing in jeopardy the material welfare of our country, by engaging in untried experiments."

Sick Blood

Feed pale girls on Scott's Emulsion.

We do not need to give all the reasons why Scott's Emulsion restores the strength and flesh and color of good health to those who suffer from sick blood.

The fact that it is the best preparation of Cod Liver Oil, rich in nutrition, full of healthy stimulation is a suggestion as to why it does what it does.

Scott's Emulsion presents Cod Liver Oil at its best, fullest in strength, least in taste.

Young women in their "teens" are permanently cured of the peculiar disease of the blood which shows itself in paleness, weakness and nervousness, by regular treatment with Scott's Emulsion.

It is a true blood food and is naturally adapted to the cure of the blood sickness from which so many young women suffer.

We will be glad to send a sample to any address.

AMERICAN GIRL IN LONDON.

SINGER OF SOUTHERN PLANTATION MELODIES BECOMES FAMOUS IN ENGLAND.

Is to Sing Old Negro Songs to King and Queen, Has Declined Stage Career, Preferring to Sing the Native Songs of the Southland.

Another charming American girl has set the fashionable world of London by the ears. She has sung her way into the hearts and taugt the taste of old piano players and mattoles until the English capital is fairly ringing with the sound of her praises.

This fortunate young woman is Miss Clara Alexander of Memphis, Tennessee, who is the first American girl as ever crossed the water to Old England. She is just now anticipating her appearance before the King and Queen of England, and when, she is accomplished, she will indeed find that her success is complete.

MISS CLARA ALEXANDER.

the conductor was inside collecting fares and did not hear him. At last Mr. Browne's suspenders gave way with a slight snap, and the singer was left sitting on the seat, with the car vanishing into the distance, and the trolley flying wildly from under her.

Naturally, the Hon. Augustus Browne couldn't sit there in the middle of the street indefinitely. Already he had narrowly escaped a garbageman and a short-hair who had been his victim. So he arose and took a look around. Excepting the loss of a pair of heavily-crested spectacles and a small assortment of aliments, he would have caused him to take his meals at the manhole for a week if so, Mr. Browne was in pretty fair.

He wore a very fine suit with a perfectly-cut frock coat, pant hosen, a bow-tie, a boutonniere, shoes, a bowler hat, and a pair of light-colored leather gloves. He was a veritable witness, that there ought to be a white lot in a silk shirt, frock coat, bow-tie, bowler hat, and leather gloves.

It was a real comedy, and a talented actress offered to coach the young American girl in the role of Juliet if she would appear in a scene or two. Browne readily lent her his grand mansion on Portland Place for a recital by this talented American girl for which the social world of London cheerfully paid a ticket. His friend, a prominent lawyer, and with Mrs. Mackay and other influential women to stand sponsor for her, this little girl from Tennessee is destined to become a famous singer.

And now she is to appear before the King and Queen! The "command" which has been sent to Miss Alexander is the same as that which goes to every aristocrat in King Edward's court. Miss Alexander is to hear it in reality an invitation, but it is called a "command" for the reason that an invitation from the King or Queen brings no obligation, and is therefore in a sense, obligatory.

Miss Alexander breathes the life of the south in all her work and no amount of practice will suffice to teach her to sing for a stage career. She is taking into London drawing rooms and even into the presence of His Majesty, King Edward VII, in attempt to please the queen and the pretty instincts which make of the southern girl another type of the American beauty which is even a puzzle and yet a veritable joy to our English friends across the water.

IT PAYS TO DRESS IN STYLE.

Stirring Adventure of the Hon. Augusta Browne, of Cleveland, Ohio.

Thinking it very hard, the other night with the Hon. Augusta Browne, of Cleveland, Ohio. As Mr. Browne stepped off a street car during the early hour of the day, he at one of the most crooked localities in the land, his well-made trousers caught on the lower step—it seemed that some of the iron work was loose. Some tampering than was starting the ear, and the Hon. Augusta Browne at once sat down upon the Belgian rocks in a smoking manner. Mr. over the Hon. Augusta kept right along with the vehicle, towed by the left leg of the expensive trousers, and remaining a moment of time in great distress and consternation. What made it worse was the fact that the spectators on the sidewalk were disposed to be very disapproving.

Browne expostulated against the treatment he was receiving, though, of course, in a perfectly dignified way,

CHINA'S ARMY OF 40,000.

FOREIGN ATTACHES WITNESSED RECENT FIELD MANOEUVRES—AMAZED AT RESULTS.

Japanese Training Apparent in Superiority and Discipline—Mausers Used, but Cavalry Illly.

Evidence that China is shedding her stamp of conservatism and is preparing to take her place with other Oriental nations, is evidenced by her field regulars and maneuvers just ended with the Belgians at Antwerp. A number of diplomatic attaches, representing the military of the principal nations of the world, were present as guests of the viceroy, and Gen. Kitamura, who has been so lavish in entertainment. To those who remember the condition of Chinese troops five years ago, this foot of raising arms any day of forty thousand men, is being exacted again. The marksmanship was good, and the cavalry ill-trained. There were some unfavorable criticisms, to be sure; but all gave unstinted praise for the complete control of the troops and their steadiness of disposition, and the general cooperation with that of European veterans.

Armed With Modern Equipment.

The scheme of the maneuvers was the assumed invasion of Chihli by a southern force from Shantung, whose aim was to capture the capital and inflict the influence of the north upon the south. One army was remarked that had not met at least twenty Japanese officers among the troops. Many of the canons are of Japanese type, and we know that Japan is in design.

The hand of Japan is seen at every turn.

BABY'S ECZEMA

Top of Head Covered with Scales Which Peeled off Taking Hair with Them.

CURED BY CUTICURA

Now Six Years Old with Thick Hair and Clean Scalp. Cure Permanent.

"My baby was six weeks old when the top of her head became covered with thick scales, which would peel and come off, taking the hair with it. It would soon regrow again, but he bad a sore scalp. My doctor said it was Eczema, and prescribed an ointment, which did no good. I then tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I washed her head in warm water and Cuticura Soap and gently combed the scales off. This did not come back and her hair grew out fine and thick. She is now a year and a half old, and has no trace of Eczema."

MRS. C. W. BURGES, Transtian Ave., Bridgeport, Conn., Feb. 21, 1893.

CURE PERMANENT

Mrs. Burges writes Feb. 28, 1905: "My baby, who had Eczema very badly on her head, as I have before mentioned, was cured by Cuticura Remedies and is cured. She is now six years old, and has thick hair and a clean scalp."

Instant relief, refreshing, for people who have been troubled, worried mothers in warm baths with Cuticura Soap, and gentle anointing with Cuticura Ointment, purest of emollients, the greatest known curative.

This is the most sweetest, most speedy, permanent, and economical treatment for torturing, disfiguring, Itchiness, and pimples skin and scabs, humours, and loss of hair, of infants and children, as well as adults, and is sure to succeed where other remedies fail."

Sold throughout the world. Cuticura Remedies, in form of Cold Cream, Cold Cream Puff, Skin, per vial of 60c; Skin, per vial of 12c; Skin, per vial of 25c; Skin, per vial of 10c. Send for "The Great Handbook of Cuticura Remedies."

CUBAN MINISTER TO THE U. S.

Recommends Pe-ru-na.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States.

Senor Quesada, Cuban Minister to the United States, is an orator born. In an article in The Outlook for July, 1899, by George Kennan, who heard Quesada speak at the Esteban Theater, Nantanzas, Cuba, he said: "I have seen man audiences under the spell of eloquent speech and in the grip of strong emotions excited; but I have rarely witnessed such a scene as at the close of Quesada's eulogy upon the dead patriot, Mart." In a letter to The Peruana Medicina Co., written from Washington, D. C., Senor Quesada says:

"Peruna I can recommend as a very good medicine. It is an excellent strengthening tonic, and is also an efficacious cure for the almost universal complaint of catarrh." —Gonzalo De Quesada.

Congressman J. H. Bankhead, of Alabama, one of the most influential members of the House of Representatives, in a letter written from Washington, D. C., gives his endorsement to the great catarrh remedy, Peruna, in the following words:

"Your Peruna is one of the best medicines I ever tried, and no family should be without your remarkable remedy. As a tonic and catarrh cure it know of nothing better." —J. H. Bankhead.
